

HOW LOVELY IS YOUR DWELLING PLACE

BRIAN L. PENNEY, 2011
FROM PSALM 84

ST. GREGORY
DARMSTADT GESANGBUCH, 1698

1. How love - ly is Your dwell - ing place, And
2. The swal - low builds her - self a nest, O
3. Blessed is the man who, by Your strength, Has
4. The tents of sin and van - i - ty shall
5. The Lord God is our sun and shield, His

there, O Lord, I seek Your face; Now longs my soul, yes, Lord, that I should be so blessed; So near the al - tar set his heart to walk the length Of Ba - ca's vale, and nev - er be a home for me; One day with - in the grace and glo - ry are re - vealed, To those who walk in ev - en faints, to wor - ship You a - mong Your saints.

of Your grace, With - in Your ho - ly dwell - ing place.
then ap - pear In Zi - on's courts to wor - ship there.
courts of praise, Is bet - ter than a thou - sand days.
right - eous - ness; The man who trusts You shall be blessed.