

Sing to the Lord a New Song
Psalm 98

Brian L. Penney, 2011

Johann Cruger, 1598-1662

1. Sing to the Lord a new song, for won - ders
2. Shout to the Lord all na - tions, break forth in
3. Let the seas roar with ful - ness, the world and

He has done. His right hand strong and might - y, a joy - ful praise; Sing to the Lord, you peo - ple, with dwell - ers there; Let streams clap hands to - get - er, and glori - ous vict'ry has won. Sal - va - tion He made known, harps your psalm now raise. Lift up the sil - ver horn, hills with joy de - clare; Be - hold, the Lord shall come,

Faith - ful un - to His own, and all the earth shall trum - pets your songs a - dorn, be - fore the Lord, O His will on earth be done; The right eous Judge is see, God's sav - ing maj - es - ty.

sing, shout joy - ful - ly to our King.
He, Who rules with e - qui - ty